SAINT JOHN – A cultural exchange that emerged in 2015 has resulted in a partnership and friendship between two theatre companies' worlds away.

The Saint John Theatre Company is pleased to host Theater Konstanz from Konstanz, Germany next month as they present a fully German production of the Neil LaBute one woman show EINE ART LIEBESERKLÄRUNG (All The Ways To Say I Love You) with English sur-titles. The production will take place at the BMO Studio Theatre, 112 Princess Street on March 11 & 12.

With this play, author Neil LaBute not only raises questions about the personal consequences of an affair between teacher and student, but also deals with the subliminal racism in our society.

A cultural exchange has developed between the two companies sharing best practices and treating local audiences to works from worlds away. The SJTC production of An Enemy of the People traveled to Theater Konstanz (January 2017), a German production of Medea was presented at the BMO Studio Theatre by Theater Konstanz (April 2018) and an ARC production of Mary's Wedding toured to Konstanz as well as several other German cities along with Paris, France (Nov 2019).

"Working alongside the teams at Theater Konstanz was an amazing experience for the entire SJTC team. Exchanging best practices and performing for a new audience, was a confidence boost for the cast and crew," adds SJTC Artistic Director, Stephen Tobias.

EINE ART LIEBESERKLÄRUNG will run at the BMO Studio Theatre, 112 Princess Street on March 11 & 12. Tickets are $27.50 and $15 for students. To order visit:
