SJTC Partners with Tarragon Theatre

The Saint John Theatre Company has partnered with Toronto based Tarragon Theatre to offer a hand-picked series of audio recordings.

SAINT JOHN – the Saint John Theatre Company is proud to partner with Tarragon Theatre offering a variety of treasured audio recordings pulled from the archives of Tarragon Theatre's line-up.

Tarragon Acoustic is a series of 18 plays that have been offered to Toronto audiences since September of this year. The fully realized audio dramas cover productions from the past as well as samples of future works. The COVID-19 pandemic has altered the Tarragon Theatre season, the Tarragon Acoustic series is a re-imagined way to get theatre out to their audience base. Tarragon has made the decision to partner with select theatre companies throughout the country to share these works with a wider audience.

Tarragon Acoustic performances will be made available on the second Thursday and last Sunday of each month until May of 2021. Customers will access to listen to these performances until the end of the two-week run. Tickets will be purchased through the Tarragon Theatre box office.

Next up in the Tarragon Acoustic Series is an audio version of 7 Stories by Morris Panych. The recording will be available for purchase from November 12-26. Tickets are $12.50 + $2.99 service fee and can be purchased by visiting the Tarragon Theatre box office.
