SAINT JOHN THEATRE COMPANY

SJTC Board Appointments

SAINT JOHN – The Saint John Theatre Company is pleased to announce the addition of three new members to its Board of Directors. Lynda Rogers, Dr. Timothy Christie, and Shane Snow will provide valuable insight to the Saint John Theatre Company at a critical time in the company's growth and development.

Lynda Rogers holds degrees in Law and Science from Dalhousie University. She currently practices civil litigation with a focus in insurance, health and administrative law with Cox & Palmer in Saint John.

Dr. Christie is the Regional Director of Ethics Services for Horizon Health Network in New Brunswick. He supervises graduate students and has taught medical ethics at the University of British Columbia, University of Victoria, the University of Ottawa, and the University of New Brunswick Saint John Campus.

Shane Snow is a CAP at Grant Thornton in Saint John with over 19 years of experience. He is passionate about delivering strategic business advice to help companies in every industry achieve their growth objectives.

"We look forward to welcoming these three talented individuals to the Saint John Theatre Company. They will add new perspective and additional skills to our Board of Directors. While our current team has a strong and diverse skill set, we feel adding these members to the Board during such a pivotal time in our growth will greatly benefit the SJTC as we mature and develop our organization." George Daniel, SJTC Board President
