SAINT JOHN THEATRE COMPANY

SJTC Board Appointment

SAINT JOHN – The Saint John Theatre Company is pleased to announce the addition of Jo-Anne MacDonald to its Board of Directors. Jo-Anne is a theatre advocate and talented performer who has been involved in several local productions including Leader of the Pack, Little Shop of Horrors, and One Flew Over the Cuckoos Nest.

Jo-Anne most recently played the role of Sister Mary Hubert in the May 2021 Main Stage performance of Nunsense at Imperial Theatre.

Jo-Anne has worked across Canada, leading organizations in several industries: Title Insurance, P & C Insurance and then retiring as CEO, in January 2020, of an International Legal Expense Insurance Company. Just prior to the COVID-19 lockdown in 2020, she and her husband bought a home in uptown Saint John and moved back from Toronto.

“I am thrilled to be part of the Saint John Theatre Company as one of its Board members at this very exciting time in their history.” Jo-Anne MacDonald

The Saint John Theatre Company is a professional arts organization that aims to enrich and engage the community by producing quality theatre and creating experiences through performing arts.

The company has a 30 plus year history of growing the theatre arts sector in Southern New Brunswick and has grown from producing a handful of theatre productions each year to a broad spectrum of opportunities for artist and audience.
