Fundy FRINGE welcomes applicants for 10th annual event.

Fundy FRINGE Festival seeking submissions from local, national, and international artists in preparation for festival's tenth summer.

SAINT JOHN – Planning has begun for the ever-popular Fundy FRINGE Festival which will commemorate a decade of entertainment this summer. “This year will be a thrilling combination of new talent as well as a celebration of the works of the artists and volunteers that make up our past,” adds Festival Director, Drew Murdock.

A combination of live and streaming performances, workshops, and after-hours activities will take place in indoor and outdoor venues located in uptown Saint John. The festival will run from August 21-27, 2022, making its home base at the BMO Studio Theatre, 112 Princess Street.

Local, national, and international artists are encouraged to submit an application to be part of the 2022 festival on or before Sunday, March 20 at 11:59pm AST. Successful applicants will be selected in true Fringe style – by lottery!

Applicants will be required to pay a $25 fee upon submission. Selected participants will be charged a $250 fee to cover production fees and promotional listings. Selections will be made by lottery on Monday, March 28. The application form can be found by visiting: <https://fundyfringefestival.com/application>

The Fundy FRINGE Festival is part of a growing community of FRINGE Festivals throughout North America, dedicated to supporting independent performers and artists and creating affordable spaces through which diverse communities can experience boundary-pushing theatre and other performances. The Fundy FRINGE Festival is supported by Canadian Heritage, Saint John Community Arts Board, and the Province of New Brunswick.
