A holiday Miracle takes the stage

SJTC's production of Miracle on 34th Street opens at Imperial Theatre next week.

SAINT JOHN – The 33rd Main Stage Season opens with plenty of heart-warming, holiday fun with the timeless production of Miracle on 34th Street, adapted and directed by Bob Doherty. The show will be staged at Imperial Theatre and will run from November 23-26.

“Miracle On 34th Street reminds us to have faith not just in our own goodness and in the goodness of others but in those intangible principles of morality and ethics that we can all strive to live by so that when all the “systems” fail we still have hope, security, and stability in our lives.” Bob Doherty, Director.

The show will run from November 23-26 with performances at 7:30 PM plus an additional 2 PM matinee performance on Saturday. Tickets are available at Imperial Theatre box office. To order call 506-674-4100 or visit www.imperialtheatre.ca

“I believe the audience will really enjoy this take on the holiday classic. We don't get too syrupy, or too wry and the show moves along like an illuminated holiday train!” Kevin Greaves who plays Dr Pierce & Judge Henry X Harper.

The SJTC would like to thank Season Patron BMO Financial Group, Main Stage Series Sponsor Saint John LNG, the Province of New Brunswick, and the Pannell Family Foundation and the RBC Foundation for their ongoing support.
