A haunting one-man take on the Dicken's classic The Book of Darkness and Light presents a version of A Christmas Carol unlike any other.

SAINT JOHN – Audiences are invited to join Ebenezer Scrooge as he journeys into the past, present and yet-to-come in this thrilling solo show. The delight of Victorian London is brought to life and the ghosts of Christmas return from the dead – all through the spellbinding art of storytelling. London (UK) based production company The Book of Darkness and Light will be bringing their haunting adaption to the BMO Studio Theatre December 5-9.

After the phenomenal success of national tours of their ghost story plays Shivers, Haunted and Upon the Stair, The Book of Darkness & Light will be making their Canadian debut with actor Adam Z. Robinson portraying 28 different characters in the show. "What an honour to bring our ghostly and heartwarming solo adaptation of one of the finest stories ever written to Saint John," adds Robinson.

A Christmas Carol will run from December 5-9. Don't miss your chance to experience this one-man masterpiece at the BMO Studio Theatre. Tickets are available for $30 or $20 for students and can be purchased at tickets.saintjohntheatrecompany.com or by calling 506-652-7582.

This event has been made possible thanks to the generosity and support of various individuals and organizations. The SJTC would like to extend their gratitude to the following supporters: BMO Financial Group, the Province of New Brunswick, the Pannell Family Foundation, Chipman Hill Suites, the New Brunswick Children's Foundation, and Nutrien.
