

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 11, 2024

Contact: Lise Driscoll, Marketing & Communications, SJTC
506-652-7582 ext. 226 | lise.driscoll@saintjohntheatrecompany.com

Be careful what you write. You never know who is reading!
Stephen King's Misery comes to Imperial Theatre this month.

SAINT JOHN – The much-anticipated stage adaptation of Stephen King's iconic thriller Misery will be staged at Imperial Theatre from March 20-23 as part of the Saint John Theatre Company's popular Main Stage Series.

Stephen Tobias stars as novelist Paul Sheldon, who finds himself in the deadly grip of his number one fan, Annie Wilkes, played by the talented Sarah Rankin. As the lines between fiction and madness blur, Sheldon is thrust into a fight for survival, ensnared in Wilkes' twisted scheme to force the creation of the new Misery novel.

"Bringing Annie Wilkes to life on stage has been an exhilarating challenge. She is a disturbing and fascinating blend of obsession, unpredictability, and psychological intensity. I hope that the audience will enjoy getting to know her as much as I have," adds Sarah Rankin.

Tickets are $50 with senior and student discounts available. The show will run March 20-23 at 7:30 PM with an additional 2 PM matinee on March 23. For more information, or to book your tickets, call Imperial Theatre box office at 506-674-4100 or visit www.imperialonline.ca.

*Due to the intense nature of the play, viewer discretion is advised. *

The SJTC would like to thank Season Patron BMO Financial Group; the Province of New Brunswick, the Pannell Family Foundation; Colliers International; Imperial Theatre Foundation; Nutrien; the Saint John Exhibition Association and the Sisters of Charity of the Immaculate Conception for their support of this production.