F*cking Trans Women Dares to Defy Societal Norms in a Raw and Empowering Solo Performance

SAINT JOHN - Prepare to be challenged, entertained, and deeply moved by Zoë Comeau's groundbreaking solo performance, *F*cking Trans Women*. This bold theatrical experience opens a dialogue around the often-misunderstood sexual experiences of transgender women, normalizing and celebrating them with unapologetic honesty and humor.

Zoë Comeau, a fearless playwright and performer, invites audiences to step into a world that is both deeply personal and universally significant. Through poignant storytelling and raw emotion, Comeau dismantles societal norms and shatters the secrecy and shame often associated with transgender sexuality. Her performance promises not only to educate but also to offer an adventure that is as humorous as it is heartfelt.

"The show is educational, but it's also a laugh, a raw performance, and a deeply emotionally and sexually charged adventure. C'mon, aren't you just a little curious?" adds Zoë Comeau.

August 7-9, 2024 | 7:30 PM | BMO Studio Theatre, 112 Princess Street.

Tickets: $30.
