

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 31, 2024

Contact: Lise Driscoll, Marketing & Communications, SJTC
506-652-7582 ext. 226 | lise.driscoll@saintjohntheatrecompany.com

Get Ready for a Sweet Adventure.

Saint John Theatre Company production of Charlie and the Chocolate Factory takes the stage at Imperial Theatre next month.

SAINT JOHN – Step into a world of pure imagination as the Saint John Theatre Company (SJTC) presents the magical and whimsical production of the beloved classic Charlie and the Chocolate Factory.

Join us for a delightful journey through Willy Wonka's extraordinary chocolate factory, where surprises and laughter await at every turn.

“We're thrilled to bring Charlie and the Chocolate Factory to life on stage. The excitement is truly building, and we can't wait for audiences to experience the magic and wonder of this timeless story,” adds Director Stephen Tobias.

Our talented cast and creative team have whipped up a confection of dazzling performances and jaw-dropping sets, guaranteed to enchant audiences of all ages. The show's witty script and catchy tunes will have you tapping your toes and craving a sweet treat by the curtain call.

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory runs from November 27 to December 1 at Imperial Theatre. Performances are scheduled for Wednesday through Saturday at 7:30 pm with additional matinee performances on Saturday and Sunday at 2 pm.

Tickets are moving fast and can be purchased at www.imperialonline.ca or by calling the Imperial Theatre box office at 506-674-4100.

The SJTC would like to thank Season Patron BMO Financial Group, Main Stage Production Sponsor Sun Life, the Province of New Brunswick, the Pannell Family Foundation, Colliers International, and the Imperial Theatre Foundation for their support of this production.