

Enrollment Open for 2025 ARC Academy Workshops.

Hands-On Learning from Industry Experts.

03/11/2025

SAINT JOHN - ARC Academy is excited to announce the start of its 2025 workshop series, starting with two engaging sessions this spring. These workshops are crafted for aspiring actors and theatre enthusiasts, and no prior experience is needed to join.

Upcoming Workshops:

Master Your Monologue with Caroline Bell - April 26, 2025. Dive into the art of delivering a captivating performance and enhance your monologue skills.

Stage Combat 101 with Jean-Michel Cliche - May 10, 2025. Enter the world of stage combat and learn safe, stylish unarmed techniques. Ideal for actors and anyone looking for a fun, unique challenge.

Stay tuned for more workshop announcements for the 2025 season.

Founded in 2019, ARC is dedicated to supporting and showcasing emerging theatre talent from the Atlantic Canadian region. Our initiative emphasizes outstanding theatrical works with contributions from respected Canadian theatre professionals. Productions like Waiting for Godot, The Woman in Black, and Cottagers and Indians demonstrate the impact of our work. Collaborations with leading artists such as R.H. Thomson and Eric Peterson, guided by acclaimed director Richard Rose, highlight the potential of ARC's projects.

Support for this project has been provided by the Sisters of Charity, the Saint John Exhibition Association and the New Brunswick Children's Foundation
