Call for Directors: SJTC's Script Happens 2025

Seeking local directors for summer showcase of original one act plays

SAINT JOHN – The Saint John Theatre Company (SJTC) invites passionate directors to take the helm of three exciting new short plays from New Brunswick for Script Happens 2025.

Whether you are an experienced director or new to the scene, this opportunity offers a chance to work with a mentor-director and receive valuable guidance. A dedicated producer will also be on hand to oversee the project and assist you throughout the process.

Those interested in directing and reviewing the scripts can learn more by emailing submissions@saintjohntheatrecompany.com. The deadline for requests is Sunday, March 23. Responses will be sent by March 27.

Support for Script Happens 2025 has been provided by BMO Financial, James Venner Russell Foundation, the Pannell Family Foundation and Canadian Heritage.

Script Happens is a playwriting competition hosted by the Saint John Theatre Company, aimed at fostering creativity and supporting local playwrights and creatives in New Brunswick. This event provides a platform for writers to showcase their original one-act plays, contributing to the cultural enrichment of the community. By encouraging local talent and offering them an opportunity for production, Script Happens plays a crucial role in nurturing the arts and enhancing the region's theatrical landscape.
