Experience the Suspense and Intrigue of Dial M for Murder

A Timeless Thriller Comes to Life on Stage this month at Imperial Theatre

SAINT JOHN – Get ready, mystery lovers! A bold new adaptation of Dial M for Murder, the gripping thriller that inspired Alfred Hitchcock’s iconic film, is coming to Imperial Theatre from May 21-24, 2025. This fresh take on the classic murder mystery promises a fast-paced story packed with jealousy, deception, and a dash of murder.

Adapted by the celebrated playwright Jeffrey Hatcher from Frederick Knott’s classic story, this production breathes new life into the tale of manipulation, deception, and murder that captivated audiences in Alfred Hitchcock’s 1954 film version.

The story follows the calculating Tony Wendice, whose seemingly perfect plan to commit the ultimate crime spirals into unexpected chaos. “Dial M isn't a whodunnit; the audience is in on it from the beginning. We know what's supposed to happen, we see it backfire, and then we watch Tony improvise a plan B. It seems to be working. Or is it?” adds Director Bertis Sutton.

Join us at the Imperial Theatre May 21-24, 2025 for a thrilling ride into a world of lies, passion, and murder. Tickets can be purchased at www.imperialtheatre.ca or by calling the Imperial Theatre box office at 506-674-4100.

The SJTC would like to thank Season Patron BMO Financial Group, Murdock/Palmer Nesbitt Burns, the Province of New Brunswick, the Pannell Family Foundation, Colliers International, and the Imperial Theatre Foundation for their support of this production.
