

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 27, 2025

Contact: Lise Driscoll, Marketing & Communications, SJTC
506-652-7582 ext. 226 | lise.driscoll@saintjohntheatrecompany.com

A Christmas Carol Brings Fresh Holiday Magic to the Imperial Theatre A Charles Dickens classic, newly adapted by Drew Murdock

November 19–22, 2025 | Imperial Theatre | Directed by Sandra Bell

SAINT JOHN, NB — The Saint John Theatre Company is delighted to present A Christmas Carol, Charles Dickens' beloved holiday classic newly adapted by Drew Murdock and directed by Sandra Bell. This heartwarming production runs November 19–22, 2025, at the Imperial Theatre.

Celebrate the holiday season with a fresh new vision of Ebenezer Scrooge's timeless journey. Under Sandra Bell's inspired direction, Murdock's reimagined adaptation brings A Christmas Carol to life with warmth, humour, and a dash of festive magic. From ghostly visits to joyful revelations, this cherished tale of hope, kindness, and redemption continues to remind us of what truly matters during the holidays.

"As the days have become chillier and darker, the cast and crew have celebrated the companionship and transformation theatre offers," says director Sandra Bell. "We are excited to share this heartwarming tale with audiences next month."

A Christmas Carol is perfect for families and theatre lovers alike; this production offers a joyful way to rediscover the true spirit of Christmas. Expect plenty of laughter, surprises, and heartfelt moments as Scrooge learns that generosity and goodwill are the greatest gifts of all!

Performance Details: November 19–22, 2025 at Imperial Theatre

Tickets: $55 Regular | $50 Senior | $30 Student

Tickets available at imperialtheatre.ca or by calling 506-674-4100.

Production support has been provided by BMO, the Province of New Brunswick, Colliers, The Imperial Theatre Foundation, and the Pannell Family Foundation.