James Mullinger Is Back - UNPLANNED. UNSCRIPTED. OFF THE CUFF. On Sale Today!

SAINT JOHN, NB - He's back... and he still has absolutely no idea what he's going to say!

After last year's sold-out run, fan-favourite comedian James Mullinger returns to the BMO Studio Theatre for three nights of pure, off-the-cuff comedy in UNPLANNED. UNSCRIPTED. OFF THE CUFF.

Expect a hilarious, unpredictable ride where anything can happen because you call the shots. Audience suggestions inspire James's on-the-spot riffs, wild stories, and unfiltered observations. Every night is brand new, every joke is born in the moment, and yes... it could all go wonderfully (or hilariously) wrong.

No two shows are the same, so why not catch all three? It's a rare chance to see one of Canada's top comedians throw away the script and dive headfirst into the unknown.

Each night also features a special guest comedian to kick things off.
