FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Acclaimed Canadian Actor Shawn Wright Returns with Ghost Light – Jan 28-31

SAINT JOHN – Atlantic Repertory Company brings Ghost Light to the BMO Studio Theatre January 28–31, 2026, a powerful and intimate one-man show written and performed by celebrated New Brunswick artist Shawn Wright, with original direction and dramaturgy by Thomas Morgan Jones.

A moving blend of heart and humour, Ghost Light is Wright's personal tribute to his late mother, Regina, whose love of theatre shaped his extraordinary career. Through vivid storytelling and masterful character work, Wright reflects on growing up in New Brunswick as the youngest of seven, celebrating family, legacy, and the transformative power of theatre.

Wright's distinguished career spans 15 productions at the Stratford Shakespeare Festival, 20 at the Shaw Festival, original casts of Mamma Mia! and Jersey Boys, the Broadway workshop of Ragtime, and television roles including Murdoch Mysteries. Ghost Light, now in its ninth production, showcases the magnetic stage presence that has made Wright a favourite on Canada's most prestigious stages.

Tickets are $45. January 29 is Industry Night — $25 tickets and an exclusive post-show talkback for arts workers.

Tickets are available at www.atlanticrep.ca or by calling 506-652-7582.

Funding for this project has been generously provided by Arts Culture NB; Arts NB; BMO; New Brunswick Children's Foundation; the Pannell Family Foundation; the Province of New Brunswick and the RBC Emerging Artists.
