A Night of Enchantment Arrives on the Saint John Waterfront Loyalist City Shakespeare Presents A Midsummer Night's Dream

Saint John, NB — This summer, Loyalist City Shakespeare invites audiences to step into a world of magic, mischief, and moonlit romance with a waterfront production of A Midsummer Night's Dream. Performed outdoors at the historic Place Fort La Tour National Historic Site, this beloved Shakespearean comedy transforms the harbourfront into an enchanted realm where anything can happen.

Directed by Sandra Bell, the production follows star-crossed lovers, bumbling actors, and playful fairies as their stories collide in the mystical woods. Packed with laughter, romance, and theatrical wonder, it promises an unforgettable night beneath the stars.

“There’s something extraordinary about sharing Shakespeare with audiences in the open air,” says Director Sandra Bell. “The harbour, the history, and the natural beauty of Place Fort La Tour create the perfect atmosphere for this timeless tale.”

Performances run July 15–18 and 22–25, 2026 at 7:30 PM.
