

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 24, 2026

Saint John Theatre Company Announces New Round of National Theatre Live Screenings at the BMO Studio Theatre

The Saint John Theatre Company is excited to launch the next slate of National Theatre Live screenings at the BMO Studio Theatre, giving local audiences the chance to experience world-class London theatre - without leaving Saint John.

National Theatre Live, the UK's boldest theatrical outreach initiative, broadcasts major productions from London's National Theatre and other leading venues to screens around the world. Audiences can enjoy acclaimed performances and celebrated stars in the intimate setting of the BMO Studio Theatre.

Upcoming Screenings at the BMO Studio Theatre

A Streetcar Named Desire

March 24, 2026 | 7:30 PM

Gillian Anderson, Vanessa Kirby, and Ben Foster ignite Tennessee Williams' classic in Benedict Andrews' electrifying production filmed live at the Young Vic.

All My Sons

May 5, 2026 | 7:30 PM

Bryan Cranston and Marianne Jean-Baptiste lead Ivo Van Hove's acclaimed staging of Arthur Miller's searing American tragedy.

The Playboy of the Western World

June 9, 2026 | 7:30 PM

Nicola Coughlan, Éanna Hardwicke, and Siobhán McSweeney star in this gripping tale of identity and upheaval from director Caitríona McLaughlin.

Les Liaisons Dangereuses

July 7, 2026 | 7:30 PM

Lesley Manville and Aidan Turner headline Christopher Hampton's celebrated adaptation, directed by Marianne Elliott.

Tickets are $25 and go on sale February 24 at www.saintjohntheatrecompany.com or by calling 506-652-7582.

This series is generously supported by CBCL and BMO.

Media Contact:

Lise Driscoll | Marketing & Communications, Saint John Theatre Company
lise.driscoll@saintjohntheatrecompany.com | 506-652-7582 ext. 226