

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 7, 2026

Contact: Lise Driscoll, Marketing & Communications, SJTC
506-652-7582 ext. 226 | lise.driscoll@saintjohntheatrecompany.com

Shakespeare is back on the Saint John Waterfront Next Week!

SAINT JOHN, NB – Loyalist City Shakespeare returns to the Saint John waterfront next week with A Midsummer Night's Dream, inviting audiences to enjoy an evening of live theatre at the historic Place Fort La Tour National Historic Site.

Opening July 15, this year's production marks the company's fourth summer season on the harbourfront. Directed by Sandra Bell, the comedy follows four young lovers, a troupe of well-meaning amateur actors, and a mischievous band of fairies whose antics turn the woods upside down. Full of humour, mistaken identities, and unforgettable characters, it's a perfect summer night out for theatre lovers and newcomers alike.

"Over the past four summers, Loyalist City Shakespeare at Fort La Tour has become a wonderful summer tradition. There's a real sense of community as people gather on the waterfront to enjoy live theatre in one of Saint John's most beautiful settings. It's a truly unique way to experience Shakespeare." Stephen Tobias, SJTC Artistic Director

Performances run July 15–18 and July 22–25 at 7:30 p.m. at Place Fort La Tour National Historic Site on Harbour Passage.

Tickets are $35. To order tickets call the SJTC box office at 506-652-7582 or visit www.saintjohntheatrecompany.com.

Support for Loyalist City Shakespeare at Place Fort La Tour has been provided by Commercial Properties, Envision Saint John, BMO, The Pannell Family Foundation, and The Province of New Brunswick: Arts/Culture NB.