

10/13/2026

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Saint John Theatre Company Presents Pulitzer Prize-Winning Drama DOUBT, A PARABLE

Saint John, NB - In John Patrick Shanley's DOUBT, A PARABLE, one accusation sets off a tense struggle between a school principal and a priest, leaving those around them caught between belief and uncertainty.

The Atlantic Repertory Company (ARC) presents this gripping drama at the BMO Studio Theatre from October 27–31, 2026, directed by Samantha Wilson and featuring Marlene Handrahan, Shawn Wright, Caroline Bell, and Kirsten Alter.

Set in a Catholic school in the Bronx in 1964, the play centres on Sister Aloysius, a strict and determined principal who suspects Father Flynn, a popular priest, of misconduct involving a student. As she pushes for answers, their opposing convictions bring questions of morality, faith and power to the forefront.

With sharp dialogue and rising tension, DOUBT, A PARABLE keeps audiences guessing as the characters stand firm in what they believe to be true. The play offers no easy answers, leaving room for doubt long after the final scene.

Written by John Patrick Shanley, DOUBT, A PARABLE won the 2005 Pulitzer Prize for Drama and the Tony Award for Best Play. Its exploration of suspicion, authority and the consequences of belief remains as compelling today as ever.

DOUBT, A PARABLE runs October 27–31, 2026, at the BMO Studio Theatre, 112 Princess Street, Saint John.

Mature themes.

For tickets, please visit www.atlanticrep.ca or call 506-652-7582.

Atlantic Repertory Company gratefully acknowledges the support of Arts Culture NB, Arts NB, BMO, and the Pannell Family Foundation.

Media Inquiries:

Lise Driscoll, 506-652-7582 ext. 226, lise.driscoll@saintjohntheatrecompany.com