Deepest Fears* Brings Classic Ghost Stories to Life

Saint John Theatre Company presents a night of ghost stories in the Masonic Hall Red Room with legendary UK performer Adam Z. Robinson.

SAINT JOHN, NB - Saint John Theatre Company presents Deepest Fears: Ghost Stories, produced by The Book of Darkness & Light and performed by award-winning British storyteller Adam Z. Robinson.

Coming to the Masonic Hall Red Room October 15–17, the production brings two classic tales of terror to the stage: The Room in the Tower* by E.F. Benson and The Captain of the Polestar* by Arthur Conan Doyle.

Robinson leads audiences through a night of restless souls, horrifying spectres and secrets that refuse to stay buried. Known for his atmospheric storytelling, Robinson previously performed in Saint John with The Book of Darkness & Light's amazingly popular sold-out run of A Christmas Carol in 2023.

Deepest Fears: Ghost Stories runs Thursday, October 15, Friday, October 16 and Saturday, October 17 at the Masonic Hall Red Room, 92 Germain Street.

Tickets are $45. To order please call the Saint John Theatre box office at 506-652-7582 or visit www.saintjohntheatrecompany.com. Recommended for 14+.

Deepest Fears: Ghost Stories is part of the Saint John Theatre Company Presentation Series, with support from Canadian Heritage, the Pannell Family Foundation, BMO, the James Venner Russell Foundation, the Province of New Brunswick and Arts NB.
